

INCOTERMS 2010

Revised International Rules in the Interpretation of Trade Terms

A one-day seminar for Exporters & Importers, Traders Bankers, Insurers, Freight Forwarders & Carriers

Friday, September 14, 2018 * EDSA Shangri-La Hotel, Mandaluyong City, Philippines * 9:00am to 5:00pm

INCOTERMS are the different types of shipping terms (via land, air, sea) used in all kinds of international trade transactions. The new set of INCOTERMS took effect worldwide on January 1, 2011. The new rules are massive, sweeping as well as practical. These changes will have a tremendous impact on the trade documentation of exporters, importers, traders, bankers, insurers, freight forwarders and carriers, and will have critical implications for their businesses. Understanding these new rules and incorporating their use in sales contracts eliminates the uncertainties, errors and costly mistakes in the interpretations created in trade transactions.

Four terms under the current INCOTERMS 2000 were taken out. Two new terms had been added: DAT (Delivered At Terminal) and DAP (Delivered At Place). INCOTERMS 2010 promises to be very concise and more relevant to business transactions and cargo security issues which are now at the forefront of the transportation agenda of all countries and governments. Don't be left behind. ATTEND!
