

Mastering the Use of LC for Import & Export

An In-depth Understanding of LC Operations, Pitfalls, Tips & Traps in International Trade Transactions

Thursday & Friday, May 24 & 25, 2018* 9:00am to 5:00pm
MANILA MARRIOTT HOTEL, PASAY CITY, PHILIPPINES

There are 9 different types of Letters of Credit (LC) that you can use as payment instruments in your import and export transactions. Each one has its use and advantage. Master all of these by attending this two-day comprehensive program. Eliminate the risk of issuing an LC, correct the improper documentation that may resort to non-payment and losses, and learn the bad tricks used by some companies to victimize others.

We will guide you in everything you need to know about the practical steps in issuing proper LCs and how they work, what to do to avoid more than 20 major pitfall and traps, and teach you the actions to take in cases of discrepancies. This intensive training program will cover new regulations (and the application of UCP 600) involving letters of credit.

We will also present easy-to-understand case studies and samples to highlight best practices pointers and tips, including topics such as cost saving areas in LC operations that your banker will never tell you, overcoming delays in payment in LC transactions, liabilities of banks, remedies and many more!
