WHAT YOU MUST KNOW ABOUT THE 2016 PROCUREMENT LAW IRR

FEATURING JULY 17, 2017 EXECUTIVE ORDER 34 REVISING THE PROCUREMENT LAW GUIDELINES

Thursday & Friday, 27 & 28 September 2018 * Edsa Shangri-La Hotel, Mandaluyong City * 9:00am to 5:00pm

This two-day training is to provide guidance to the private sector, national government agencies, local government units, government-owned and controlled corporations on all procurement transactions covered by the 2016 Revised Implementing Rules and Regulations (IRR) of the Procurement Law of the Philippines which needs to align with the newly signed July 17, 2017 Executive Order 34 of President Rodrigo R. Duterte to make procurement transactions faster and more efficient.

The changes will impact on all government procurement and transactions with the private sector. This lecture will extensively discuss the revised IRR, the EO and how it affects certain government procurement processes and procedures, changes in the BAC Composition and its Functions, Guidelines in the formulation and revision of APP, Registration, Eligibility Requirements and Submission of Bids under the PhilGEPS, Exemptions from Public Bidding, Form and Contents of Bidding Documents, Alternative Methods of Procurement and Eligibility Requirements for the Procurement of Infrastructure, Goods, and Services.

For public officials, avoid getting into trouble due to violation and ignorance of the procurement law. For the private sector, avoid disqualification due to non-compliance! Register to ensure seat availability

Lecturer: Edmund B. Talle - He held the position of Director III, Department of Budget and Management for Region VIII from 1987 to 2012.
