How to Prepare Your Statement of Contributions & Expenditures

FEATURING THE DEFINITIVE GUIDE TO CAMPAIGN FINANCE REGULATIONS

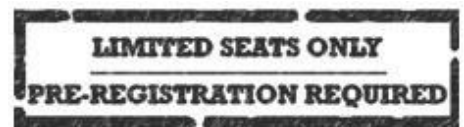

THURSDAY, MAY 30, 2019 * EDSA SHANGRI-LA HOTEL, MANDALUYONG CITY * 9:00AM TO 5:30PM

Pursuant to Republic Act 7166 and COMELEC Resolution 9476 with the strict implementation of COMELEC for the 2019 elections, all winning and losing candidates both local and national, as well as all political parties must file their Statement of Contributions and Expenditures (SOCE) within 30 days after the election. Non-filing or non-compliance for candidates means that they cannot assume their elective post and can be fined up to P60,000 as well as be perpetually disqualified from holding an elective post. You must prepare well for the submission of your SOCE to ensure your documentation is aligned with finance campaign regulations. Errors in your SOCE can be used by your opponent against you!

In this one-day training program, we will teach you how to prepare the 11 forms required for SOCE. We will clarify officially what are the lawful and unlawful campaign paraphernalia, and the limits of expense, time and space for political ads such as billboards, streamers, movies, documentaries, radio, TV, newspaper, and other social media that will all need to be reflected in your SOCE. Learn all these in this comprehensive training including valuable advice, tips, and insights on how the COMELEC will counter-check and catch violators.

Course Director & Lecturer: Atty. Ferdinand T. Rafanan – He was a regional trial court judge assigned to Mandaue branch 55 which is a special court handling election cases. Prior to his present position, he was Head of the COMELEC Law Department until July 2011. He will share all his knowledge, valuable insights, experiences, and lessons you must learn and actions you must do now in preparing your SOCE. He was Chairman of the Special Bids & Awards Committee of COMELEC to select the Automated Election System for the May 10, 2010 elections. He's an MCLE Lecturer in Election Law and the Law on Automated Elections. He conceptualized the "ELECTVOICE" (Election Law Enforcement and Compliance Thru Voters Instruction and Candidates Education). He graduated from UP Law in 1983 as an Owen White-Peter Doyle Scholar.
