

BASIC CORPORATE GOVERNANCE for Board Directors of GOCCs

THURSDAY & FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29 & 30, 2022 * 1:00PM TO 5:00 PM via zoom

Section 2, Article 5F of GCG Memorandum Circular No. 2012-05 mandates all appointive directors and CEOs of Government-Owned or Controlled Corporations (GOCCs) to attend a special seminar on public Corporate Governance within 3 months from one's date of appointment.

This GCG-accredited webinar is to fulfill your compliance requirement to attend a corporate governance training designed to guide you to be an effective director or CEO of a GOCC.

This two-session foundational course will cover topics including principles of governance, duties and responsibilities of the Board as a collegial body and as individual members, performance management, accountability of public officers, local and foreign best practices, and more!

Course Director & Lecturer: Atty. Rainer P. Dela Fuente is a lawyer and a Certified Public Accountant with an extensive experience in taxation and corporate governance.

In 2012, he joined the Office of the President of the Philippines - Governance Commission for Government-Owned and Controlled Corporations (GCG) where he became involved in the technical evaluation of state-owned enterprises to ascertain whether such entities should be reorganized, merged, streamlined, abolished or privatized.

He finished his Bachelor of Science degree in Applied Economics and Accountancy from De La Salle University - Manila and a Bachelor of Laws degree from San Beda College - Manila.

Panelist in the Open Forum: Atty. Johann Carlos S. Barcena, Director IV and Officer in Charge, Governance Commission for GOCCs
